

RQ 16108: Maxey

Synagogue Visits

Here is a list of suggested synagogues for your site visit. Please select one and plan to attend the Friday night service. One page write ups are due Nov. 1 in class.

Note: typically people dress up for these services, so business casual is usually appropriate. You should consult the synagogue's website for specific dress codes.

1) Temple Israel –Reform (<http://www.tisrael.org/>)

Public Transportation

Temple Israel is located two blocks from the Longwood Station along the Green Line's Riverside route, and two blocks in the other direction from several bus routes that stop near Beth Israel/Deaconness Hospital. The #39 bus that travels from Copley Square to Forest Hills Station stops at Mass College of Art on the corner of Longwood Ave. and Huntington Ave., which is less than a mile from the Temple. We are also about 4/5 of a mile from Coolidge Corner.

Shabbat Services

Qabbalat Shabbat Services are scheduled every Friday at 5:45PM. Check the website to confirm.

2) Temple Ohabei Shalom -- Beacon St, Brookline, Reform (<http://www.ohabei.org/>)

Erev Shabbat

Erev Shabbat Services are generally held in the Montague Chapel on the corner of Marshall and Beacon Streets at 6pm. Times and locations may change when celebrating Shabbat B'yahad Community Dinner, or during festivals and holidays when we conduct services in the Sanctuary on the corner of Kent and Beacon Streets. Please consult the calendar for up to the minute times and events.

Public Transportation: located on the Green Line "C" Kent Street Stop

3) Temple Sinai – Beacon St, Brookline, Reform
(<http://www.sinaibrookline.org/>)

Weekly Shabbat Services

Shabbat services at Temple Sinai are always open to the entire community. Please come and join us. From September through June, Erev Shabbat services are held in the Sanctuary every Friday night, usually at 7:30 pm. But on the second Friday of the month, services start at 6 pm as part of our “Shabbat at Six!” program. Please read the note and check our calendar to verify the time of the service you are attending (<http://www.sinaibrookline.org/worship/weekly-shabbat-services/>)

Public transportation: Take the Green Line C train to Coolidge Corner in Brookline. Walk east past Bank of America, Trader Joe’s, and the Post Office. Make the next right on to Charles Street. The next intersection is Sewall Avenue. (The Sanctuary entrance is on Charles Street.)

---

If you know of another synagogue, either through family or friends or your own research, that you would like to visit, please send me an email with the details and the reason you prefer to go there.

Ideally, you will do these site visits with your small groups. If that is not possible because of exceptional scheduling difficulties, you need to let me know via email and make arrangements to go on your own.

---

For more on Shabbat:

<http://www.jewfaq.org/shabbat.htm>

-Especially the section “A Typical Shabbat”

<http://www.reformjudaism.org/what-expect-reform-shabbat-service>